

The Jackson Chronicle says the only cause for apprehending disorder and bloodshed in Mississippi is the scheme of a State police, recommended by Governor Ames.

The Knoxville Chronicle recalls the dispersal of a legislature in Kansas by Colonel Sumner as furnishing a precedent for Sherman. The cases are in no sense parallel.

The New York Herald thinks the Democrats of Mississippi have thrown away a golden opportunity in refusing to return Carl Schurz to the United States senate.

Vice-President Wilson wants Grant to declare against a third term, change his cabinet, and give up holding it in the south. Wilson wants to know Grant "cannot do it, you know; he cannot do it."

Governor Ames, following the example of the Memphis Protective union, proposes to afflict Vicksburg with three commissioners—day are, however, to be political commissioners, at a cost of $100,000 per annum.

A correspondent writes us to say that the legislature "would as lief try to eat its head off as entertain the proposition of the Protective union to disfranchise the people of Memphis," and concludes with this advice, "Be easy." And we are easy, on that head at least.

It does not mitigate the extent of the outrage in Vicksburg by the military, under Major Head, that that officer performed an unpleasant duty with little parade as possible, and with a sense of shame for his position. His, however, is not the blame, but Grant's. The President is the tyrant, Head but obeyed orders.

The sub-committee of the house committee on Pacific railroads decided to report to the full committee in favor of Tom Scott's Southern Pacific bill. The probability of the passage of the bill is generally discussed in the hope. The friends of the bill insist that they will have a majority of two in the committee in its favor.

The recant witness, Wetmore, before the Pacific Mail investigation, was arraigned before the bar of the house of representatives yesterday, and in the attempt to recant his case in a justifiable light, left an impression of doubt in the minds of the members of that body as to his sanity, and he was recommended to the custody of the sergeant-at-arms.

Giant sent a message to congress yesterday urging new guns for the coast fortifications. We trust our Democratic friends will see to it that not one cent is appropriated for any such purpose. In fact, we think it would better accord with the conviction of our people if the army was stricken from the red of appropriations, and officers and men put to work on useful occupations.

The Jackson Whig and Tribune, fortified by the statement of the correspondent of the APPEAL, and other reliable gentlemen, commented on the presence at Nashville of a large number of female lobbyists in the interest of the senatorial candidates. For this it was officially taken to task by the Union and American, whom it answers in a severe article, in the course of which it says:

We made no reference to the "Nashville ladies" in a large number of our columns, and these might have gone to the capital of the South, as they did to the capital of the North. We suppose that the great majority of the ladies are more or less in the line of the "Nashville ladies," and we are not at all surprised to find them at Washington. It is not surprising to find them at Washington. It is not surprising to find them at Washington. It is not surprising to find them at Washington.

The Radicals of Connecticut, in State convention yesterday, nominated James Lloyd Green, of Norwich for governor, the mayor who ordered a salute of one hundred guns in honor of the President for his course in the Louisiana affairs. This must not be construed into an endorsement of Grant, for in their resolution they were repugnant to our ideas of government, and with him we can conceive of no case not involving rebellion or insurrection where such interference of authority of the general government ought to be permitted or can be justified.

Yesterday we published a lengthy extract from The Resources of Tennessee, a voluminous and entirely reliable publication by the commissioners of agriculture of the State, showing our condition as compared with other States. We are glad to know the purpose we have been served, and that the figures and facts given in that article had the effect to lighten the hearts of hundreds of our people. As an item of interest, we copy the following statement (obtained from official sources) of the cost of public printing in a number of States, from which it will be seen that Tennessee is, even in that, the lowest in the list:

Alabama, 1872, $2,452.00; Georgia, 1872, $2,452.00; Illinois, 1872, $2,452.00; Iowa, 1872, $2,452.00; Kansas, 1872, $2,452.00; Kentucky, 1872, $2,452.00; Louisiana, 1872, $2,452.00; Maryland, 1872, $2,452.00; Massachusetts, 1872, $2,452.00; Michigan, 1872, $2,452.00; Minnesota, 1872, $2,452.00; Missouri, 1872, $2,452.00; Nebraska, 1872, $2,452.00; Nevada, 1872, $2,452.00; New Hampshire, 1872, $2,452.00; New Jersey, 1872, $2,452.00; New York, 1872, $2,452.00; North Carolina, 1872, $2,452.00; Ohio, 1872, $2,452.00; Oregon, 1872, $2,452.00; Pennsylvania, 1872, $2,452.00; Rhode Island, 1872, $2,452.00; South Carolina, 1872, $2,452.00; South Dakota, 1872, $2,452.00; Tennessee, 1872, $2,452.00; Texas, 1872, $2,452.00; Vermont, 1872, $2,452.00; Virginia, 1872, $2,452.00; Washington, 1872, $2,452.00; West Virginia, 1872, $2,452.00; Wisconsin, 1872, $2,452.00; Wyoming, 1872, $2,452.00.

A couple of years. Chicago, January 19.—The Woodford fire at 5:30, Illinois, was burned today. Low, two thousand dollars. A fire at Newell, Iowa, this morning destroyed Scott & Bush's heavy stable with five horses and a number of carriages. Loss thirty-five hundred dollars; insurance twenty-five hundred dollars.

Special to the Appeal. Nashville, January 20.—But little routine business was transacted today. Both bodies adopted a joint resolution to proceed with the election of treasurer and comptroller to-morrow. The only house bill that passed third reading was that to amend the act relating to the funding bill which makes holders of State bonds preferred creditors.

By twelve o'clock the hall and galleries of the house of representatives were thronged with a crowd of interested citizens, to watch the balloting for senator. The two bodies met in joint session and balloted with the following result:

crossed by the approach of the comptroller and treasurer's election to-morrow. I do not think that a combination against Johnson can be made on the present canvass.

MORE CURBITION.
NASHVILLE, JANUARY 20.—The committee to investigate the alleged bribery of members of the last legislature, are busy examining witnesses relative to the passage of the funding bill. It is said that strange revelations will be made, and an unexpected effect will be produced by the committee. It is reported that the house has authorized the House committee to offer five hundred dollars for the arrest and return of John M. Frierson, of Columbia.

An effectual attempt was made to concentrate on Chancellor's bill, which will receive ten additional votes to-morrow.
